Community outreach coordinator

Community Outreach Coordinator

The community outreach coordinator plays a critical role in strengthening relationships through planning, coordinating and implementing projects in partnership with the community. These strategic relationships with residents, local organizations, elected officials and stakeholders help Habitat organizations identify areas where housing and community development solutions can intersect with identified needs.

Service activities

- Build relationships and partnerships with community residents, local organizations, elected officials and stakeholders.
- Identify community improvement projects and implement them from planning through completion.
- Engage volunteers from community to support local improvement projects.
- Coordinate and document the implementation of new projects in partnership with the community.
- Support development and marketing of new and existing community programs.

AmeriCorps members may not perform prohibited activities as outlined in 45 CFR §2520.65 nor may they supplement, duplicate or displace staff members in place at the host site.

Member development

Minimum expectations are outlined in the member development guidance, which will be available during the interview process, with the understanding that further trainings may be required, as determined by the host site, Habitat for Humanity International or our federal funder. AmeriCorps National members' training may not exceed 20% of their aggregate hours.

Experience, knowledge and skills

Minimum requirements

- AmeriCorps members must be a U.S. citizen, national or lawful permanent resident.
- AmeriCorps members must be at least 18 or older.
- AmeriCorps members must have a high school diploma or GED.
- AmeriCorps members may have recurring access to vulnerable populations and must satisfy the National Service Criminal History Check eligibility criteria.

Preferred qualifications

- Knowledge of and willingness to promote the mission and activities of Habitat for Humanity International and AmeriCorps.
- Ability to work with a diverse group of people.
- Strong written and verbal communication skills.
- Strong research skills.
- Detail oriented and highly organized.
- Experience working with volunteers, instructing individuals or facilitating groups.
- Experience working as a member of a team.
- Knowledge of community development practices.
- Basic experience with Microsoft Office Suite, especially Word and Excel.

Physical requirements

- Ability to sit at a desk and computer for extended periods of time.
- About 30% of this position requires outreach in the community, including visiting buildings and homes that may have stairs, as well as occasionally serving on project sites that may have uneven terrain.

Service site environment

Member will primarily serve in an open-space office and will share the area with other staff or fellow members. Each member will have a desk, computer (with email and internet access) and a phone for service-related tasks. Shared resources include a printer, copy machine, fax machine as well as office supplies. Member will occasionally be engaged in community build or improvement projects, such as community clean-ups, serving outside in various types of weather.
