Celebrate Women's History Month!

National AmeriCorps Week with Connie Stewart

AmeriCorps is an agency that provides Americans with opportunities to volunteer with organizations across the country. At the end of their term of service, AmeriCorps volunteers receive a generous award which goes toward their education. AmeriCorps volunteers have made a difference with Habitat Choptank by working on the construction and repair sites, doing community outreach and neighborhood revitalization, and working with our applicants and homebuyers.

In her role, Connie serves as the initial application intake person, which includes receiving initial inquiries, sending homebuyer eligibility application packets, communicating with clients if they have questions, and receiving documents to create their application folders.

"I joined Habitat Choptank because the mission and purpose aligned with my mission and purpose in the community," says Connie. "Habitat also committed itself as being a safe haven against racism and supporting
